W. L. Sears and Walter Walker were among the guests of the West Hotel for dinner Sunday.

Thos. Perkins, of Rock Valley, came in Monday from Oklahoma, to go onto his claim.

Watch: Red Star flour will be here in a few days. K. Merc. Co.

A. A. and Mrs. Kenhu of Olive were in Kenna Monday. They came in with Miss Archball, who was leaving for home at Granito, Ill.

Quite a number of Kennaites "Eastered" at Elida, and the Kenna singers participated in the exercises.

Ab. Cochran of Olive, N. M., is confined to a bed at the Central Hotel in this city, suffering from a broken leg and a disjuncted shoulder, the result of a fall in a well he was assisting to dig for Mr. Harris. The well was 30 feet deep and he fell from the top. He was about to be let down into the well when the rope broke. The great wonder is that Mr. Cochran is alive to tell the story. The accident happened Monday of this week.

R. R. Archer, representative of the Albuquerque Morning Journal, was here Tuesday in the interest of his paper.

Frank Early, the star windmill man, of Amarillo, was in Kenna this week.

Miss Duke, a sister of Mrs. P. J. Williamson, is here on a visit.

Will Beauchamp secured the position of census enumerator for the Kenna and Elkins districts.

J. F. Brogdon received a letter from his sister a few days ago, telling him that she and Jim's babies were enjoying their visit finely, and the old folks are having as good a time as their grand-children. The visitors will not come home probably for several weeks yet.

For 10 days white Lilly flour at $2.80 K. Merc., Co.

By an oversight we have carried the W. O. W. card ever since January without noting the change of officers, but this week the card will appear as it should.

For 10 days white Lilly flour at $2.80 K. Merc. Co.

Alvin White went to Roswell Monday to try for a job in the Register-Tribune office. As we are having most of our matter linotyped now, we could not use him any longer, and he likes the work so well he does not want to give up learning the trade. We have not learned if he was successful in securing a job, but hope he landed it.

Chas. E. Hinkle arrived with his family last week from Illinois and will move to his claim southeast of town, where he expects to make a crop this year. Mr. Hinkle is an old friend of Mr. Lockart, the Kenna harness maker.

Dave Howell is a happy homesteader now. His wife has come out to help him hold down the claim and the "bachelor days" at the ranch become ancient history.

March had something doing here Monday evening. A good old-fashioned dust storm did business for a few hours, and made life miserable while it lasted.

A. C. Ball, hardware salesman from Amarillo, was in Kenna Monday.

P. T. Bell and C. H. Putnam are in the valley this week. They drove down and will be gone perhaps ten days or more, as Mr. Bell thinks of buying up a few ponies and work horses at Roswell and driving them back to Kenna.

ITEMS FROM TP. 6.

RANGE 33.

Mr. C. Carver has sold his claim to a party from Oklahoma for $1,000. This claim is the NE quarter of Section 15, adjoining your humble scribe. The sale looks good to us, but at the same time our claim is not for sale.

Rev. P. J. Williamson will fill his appointment at the chapel third Sunday in April.

Carl Case will close his school at the chapel on March 30th. He has taught a very successful three months' term.

W. G. Tannehill makes a good showing as an enterprising farmer who starts in early. He has corn, peas, potatoes and other garden stuff looking green and healthy.

Mrs. Shropshire has potatoes, radishes, lettuce and other garden vegetables up and doing nicely.

Our people have been patiently waiting for seasonable planting time, and, judging from the concourse of changes undergoing, we think it is at hand. We have no doubt that this season will bring prosperity to Eastern New Mexico; and we believe further that the time is close at hand—almost in sight—when we will have the banner fruit and seed section between Oklahoma and California. Again too, we feel justified in saying that we have the greatest health climate of the world. Delegations of eastern health seekers have come here sick, and in less than three months have gone away in perfect health.

Edward Shropshire is breaking out 20 acres of sod for Rev. W. M. E. Williams. Mr. Williams and family left for Paducah, Texas, last Thursday. They started about sundown, just to get in the way of camping.

Sunday school interest is still very good at the chapel.

Prof. Guy M. Rowe has a very fine class at the chapel, and good interest is manifested.

Rev. W. H. Wood, of the district southeast of Kenna, preached to our people last Sunday, and delivered a very interesting discourse. He left an appointment for the fourth Sunday in April.

William Schramm and A. J. Shropshire are at Kenna, laying a concrete walk for the Kenna Record people. They will be pleased to have the citizens drop over and inspect the work.
